R. H. HOBSON - - - Agent.

Plain City.

The principal industry of this pleasant little borough at present is hauling salt. The hauling of salt from the Lake to the railroad at present furnishes employment to some sixty men and teams, the price paid being $1.25 per ton. The industry is, as it should be, in the hands of residents and the salt is sold to the Weber and to the Adams & Kiesel Salt Companies. Besides about 10,000 tons of coarse or milling salt that has been gathered the past season, a considerable business is being done in the manufacture of fine salt, the principal part of the latter being at present furnished by Tolkmann & Company, who grind and sack the product and send it to market in Ogden, from which point it is distributed to the various parts of the Territory.

The Reverend Unsworth has lately been delivering a series of lectures in Plain City, the lectures being quite well attended by one portion of the community. Dancing and theatricals have held sway for some time, considerable interest being manifested in some productions by the Home Dramatic Company. The dances, of course, are always largely attended.

Painting.

The painter's art is one that gives a wide field for the display of tact and ability. Many of our local business men and others, have been under the impression, apparently, that first-class work could not be done in this city, and in some instances have sent their work away. This is certainly an error, and were the rule applied to the purchase of merchandise, the fallacy would soon be discovered by our merchants. Some of our business houses bear unmistakable evidence of the ability of our local artists, and reflect credit on them as well as on the owners. A notable instance is the work on the Kuhn building, which was done by Mr. T. C. Morris, and which is as fine as the kind of work could be—the finest in the Territory. With painting, as with everything else, our people should send away for nothing that can be procured at home. Help those who help you. Exert every effort to build up your own town, and you surely will reap your portion of the common benefit.

In the Toils.

F. H. Thomas was arrested yesterday by Marshal Ballantyne on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Thomas and a friend, who claimed to be a correspondent of the Courier-Journal, have been working the town for cards of the business houses to hang in the post office. Some of the business men claim that they guaranteed to have the cards remain for five years and represented that the postmaster had given them the use of the building for that length of time. The postmaster said he had given no guarantee that the cards would remain there for that or any other length of time. Thomas claims that he did not guarantee that the cards would remain for five years; but he took them for five years, thinking that he might want to come around again by that time. The complaint is sworn to by Geo. B. Douglass.

Personal and General.

Eden began falling about 4 o'clock yesterday evening.

Snow is said to be two feet deep in Wasatch County, with more falling.

WILLIAM JOHN was sent up for fifty days to the Police Court for vagrancy.

MR. PRATT of Edgerly, Pratt & Co., has gone to Bellevue, Idaho, on business.

The streets are again in a deplorable condition from the excess of mud with which they are covered.

The number of people in the city yesterday was not so large as customary, presumably, to the condition of the roads.

The grand jury made their final report yesterday evening and were discharged subject to the call of the foreman. The report was not of very great importance.

The Central School gave a select ball Friday evening. It being a close of the term. There was a jolly crowd, and all present enjoyed themselves immensely. Watkins' quadrille band furnished the music.

The Court has not passed on the injunction in the case of the City in the matter of publishing a history when was understood that the injunction would be sustained.

The grand jury yesterday reported that they had ignored the unlawful combination charge against Joel Rickard of Logan; that against Mr. Martin, of Harrisonville, and the forgery charge against Frank Hickey.

It is rather amusing to learn the number of our merchants and business men who will refuse to patronize their own papers with advertising, yet who will pay out their money to strangers and get taken in by their scheme.

A FARMER family gathering was held in honor of the 4th anniversary of the birth of Mr. E. P. Harris, on Friday evening. The gentleman rejoices in to see another 4 years pass by and still be hale and hearty.

Contractors and builders say that ten who have been intending to invest in new enterprises in the city have what will be done under the penning Tucker-Edwards bill. The horizon is too cloudy at present.

The work of tearing down the old buildings west of the Union Hotel has been commenced and Mr. Whitaker informs us, work will be commenced on the foundation about Tuesday next. It is the intention to have the new building completed about June 1st.

A THOUSAND TIMES
Better than a Lottery,

—FOR—
Every Purchaser Draws a Prize.

A. H. CANNON, from this date, offers his immense stock of Books and Holiday Goods from 20 to 50 per cent. below previous prices, thereby enabling every customer to draw a prize in the money saved upon every article purchased.

In all lottery schemes few only receive prizes and the many pay dearly for the limited benefits (if such they may be called) thereby conferred. He does not think it necessary therefore to convert his business into a game of chance to meet his competitors, but believes that a sound public sentiment much prefers low prices and legitimate business methods to anything heretofore offered in his line of business.

A large number of Books heretofore offered at $1.50 will, from this date, be sold for $1. Those previously sold for $1.25 he now offers at 75 and 80 cents; and $1 publications can now be had for 60 cents. All Holiday Goods are proportionately reduced.

Special Announcement.

We have just opened out a Large Line of Brand New Holiday Goods which, in consequence of their late arrival, we MUST and WILL SELL REGARDLESS OF COST. They embrace the Cheapest and Choicest Line of Novelties ever offered in this market. Come quick or they will all be gone.
